◆ Immediate-use Japanese Language Course: Now Accepting Students

This course is open to anyone who lives, works, or studies in Hyogo Prefecture.

Using the textbook created by our association, "Can You Do It? Yes, I Did It!! Everyday Japanese," you will learn Japanese useful in ten everyday situations such as shopping, dealing with government offices, and preparing for disasters. The goal is to help foreign residents in the prefecture become more independent and increase what they can "do" in their daily lives in Japan.

Course Period      September 5th (Thursday) to October 2nd (Wednesday) (18 sessions in total)

Time                      9:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location                International Health Development Center

Intended for          Foreign residents of Hyogo Prefecture who are 15 years old or older, living, working, or studying in the prefecture
※ If you cannot read hiragana or katakana, please study on your own before the class. You can study hiragana and katakana at HIA on September 3rd and 4th.

Deadline                July 31st (Wednesday) - September 1st (Sunday)

How to apply          Registration will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.
Apply through the HIA website. Please enter your details directly into the application form (<https://bit.ly/46SFx6Z>).

Course Fee              4,000 yen (textbook will be provided free of charge)
